It has been definitely announced from Headquarters that the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles will arrive in Montreal between 8 and 9 p.m. to-morrow night. The Students' Council have arranged to hold a parade of students to the station to greet the men. The men will act as torch-bearers to the returning heroes, so it is hoped that not less than 300 undergraduates will assemble at the Union to-morrow night.

It has not yet been ascertained whether the P.P.C.L.I. will arrive with them. A wire received this morning was to the effect that they would not, but efforts are being put forth to have the Militia Department at Ottawa reconsider this decision.

Were Weakened by Loss of Upham—Poor Shooting by Juniors

Playing a game in which the "breaks" were against them, McGill Seniors lost Saturday night to North Branch Y.M.C.A., on the latter's own floor, by the score of 29-27. Previous to the Senior game, the Junior team lost by a score of 14-9 against the same team that they defeated last Saturday.

The Senior game started with both teams playing hard and fast from the beginning. McGill opened up the scoring after a pretty combination play between Hay, Montgomery and Upham.

North Branch, however, quickly evened up, scoring on a pretty shot from the side. The play then grew rougher, and a foul being called against North Branch, Lou Kern shot and counted one for McGill, and a short while afterwards repeated on another foul. McGill thus obtained the lead, but the "Y." men soon evened up when Denman scored a field basket, which was quickly followed by another basket for them. McGill now buckled down and Upham scored a pretty shot from the side, after which Montgomery put another one in, thus tying the score again. Immediately afterwards, however, two fouls, following in quick succession, were called on McGill. Drysdale, shooting for North Branch, made them both count. Denman followed this up, scoring a field basket. McGill then got the better of the play, scoring two in quick succession. Hay and Upham each getting one. At this stage of the game, however, McGill couldn't seem to find the basket, missing many opportunities, due to over anxiety.

Although North Branch were now being outplayed, Denman managed to put in a pretty basket from centre. This ended the scoring for the first period, half-time being called shortly afterwards.

McGill started off in the second half with a rush that overwhelmed North Branch, and resulted in "Art" Young scoring one that tied the score, and Upham put McGill in the lead with another basket. This was quickly followed by a basket by Kern on a foul. North Branch, however, soon equalized the score on a field basket by "Dave" Drysdale. The play became very rough at this stage, and the referee's whistle was busy. Many fouls were called against the "Y." men, but Lou Kern seemed to have lost track of the basket for the time being. Drysdale, however, scored a basket on a foul, which was followed by a field basket by Denman. Hay got away with the ball and scored a neat basket from the side, being followed by a basket by Upham, which gave McGill the lead once more. After a pretty combination between Montgomery, Kern and Upham, Art Young scored another. The score now stood, McGill 23, North Branch 20. It was at this stage of the game that George Upham was patrick, of the M.A.A.A.; Pisk, Par-hurt, getting a nasty cut on the forehead, which necessitated his leaving the game.

MANY NOVELTY EVENTS

Well-known Amateur Boxers and Wrestlers Will Give Exhibitions

So many students have manifested their interest by repeated enquiries about the smoker to be held by the McGill Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Club that the Daily has found it appropriate to publish a few facts about this event.

As in pre-war days, this function is an annual one for the club, and offers one of the few opportunities for the student body to witness its activities in exhibition form.

Both the wrestlers and the boxers have been practising hard, as the reports in the Daily have shown, and there is no doubt that this function will prove worth while.

In order to increase the interest and provide more variety several very good musical numbers have been arranged for, as well as several other novelties.

In addition, the B. W. and F. Club has secured a number of men from the M.A.A.A. to give exhibition bouts. As the list below shows, they are of no mean ability, being well known in amateur athletic circles. It is hoped that this will cement together the good friendship that exists between the M.A.A.A. and McGill clubs, and will doubtless prove of benefit to both.

A six-round bout given by two returned men will be the culminating event of the evening, and it is hoped that many returned men connected with McGill will turn out to back their favorites.

Among the boxers who will appear are Archie Hughes and Gerald Fitzpatrick, of the M.A.A.A.; Pisk, Par-hurt, getting a nasty cut on the forehead, which necessitated his leaving the game.

TO-DAY'S ELECTIONS.

To-day the elections to the posts of President of the Hockey Club and Secretary of the Union are to be held, the former carrying with it a seat upon the Students' Council. It is to be hoped that the students of McGill will turn out in full force at the polls and make the contests interesting. The fact that practically all of the offices on the Council were filled by acclamation seems to point to a lack of proper interest on the part of the undergraduates, and an opportunity is given to-day to dispel the impression.

The post of President of the Hockey Club is a decidedly important one, in view of the large part hockey is expected to play in the athletic field next winter, and care should be exercised by all voters to see that the proper man is selected. The Secretaryship of the Union, as is the case with all offices connected with the institution, demands a man with some business capacity.

In the past, all the efforts put forth by the "Daily" have resulted in but a fraction of the students appearing at the polls, and the lack of spirit shown by them has been ascribed to various causes. There is absolutely no excuse for every undergraduate not turning out early in the day and casting his vote, as the result of a little serious thought upon the subject.

Vote early, men—and vote for the right man!

the floor for the remainder of the game. After a delay of several minutes the play was resumed, Hyndman replacing him. North Branch, taking advantage of this fact, rushed matters and temporarily overwhelmed the McGill team, who seemed to miss Upham. At this period, "Monty" Montgomery showed up to perfection, playing not only a defensive game of the highest calibre but also feeding McGill forwards with the ball and at the same time putting lots of snap and ginger into the team as a whole. Lou Kern also showed up well. Hay worked hard, but was closely watched by the whole North Branch team. The latter scored after several minutes of quick and rather rough play on a shot by Wallace. This was followed by two fouls put in by Drysdale. McGill missed several chances to score, especially in the matter of fouls. The play now grew rougher, and Parks, of North Branch, was hurt, the game being stopped for several minutes. Parks recovered sufficiently to play, however, and the game was resumed. The "Y" men scored a short while afterwards on a neat shot by Denman, which was followed by a basket by Drysdale on a foul. McGill then took matters in hand, Hay scoring on a pass from Lou Kern, and shortly afterwards "Art" Young scored another, thus tying the score.

Perhaps the snappiest work of the game now took place. The McGill defence put up a stellar game. The forwards worked hard, and although they came near scoring many times, the ball refused to go in the basket. Then Park, securing the ball, passed to Drysdale, who shot from centre and scored the deciding basket of the game, as time was called shortly afterwards, with the score 29-27 for North Branch.

The whole Senior team played a hard and fast game, and to pick out any special man for praise would be unfair to the rest of the team. Inability to score on fouls had a great deal to do with the final score, for while the "Y" men seldom missed a foul, McGill let slip several opportunities to score in this way.

The Junior game preceded that of the Seniors. In this game, inability to shoot baskets, added to the fact that the defence were playing together for the first time, was the cause of McGill being beaten.

The game was fast and rough at times. McGill had the better of the play on the whole, but, due to poor shooting, lost many opportunities. There was one accident that marred the play, when, in the second half, Bussiere sprained his ankle and had to retire from the game. Laishley replaced him. No man can be singled out for special note, all players working hard, but at time ineffectively, to score.

The line-ups were as follows:

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

Dr. A. McGill Gives Address to Housewives' League of Montreal

At a meeting of the Housewives' League of Montreal, with the president, Mrs. Latham, in the chair, Dr. A. McGill, of the Department of Trade and Commerce at Ottawa, gave an interesting talk on weights and measures.

"The matter of first importance," said Dr. McGill, "is the assurance that the weights and measures used are accurate. This is assured through the fact that all dealers are required to have their measures tested at two-year intervals. If it is thought that a dealer is giving short weight or measure, he may be reported to J. J. Costigan, the federal representative of the Department of Weights and Measures, who will see that the doubtful measures are tested. Since 1906, an Act of Parliament has prevented the sale of articles by measure unless a special agreement has been made with the purchaser. This has done a great deal towards checking dishonest sales. Bill 19, introduced last year, proposed an amendment stating that the name and address of the manufacturer, the name and weight of the contained article and the date of manufacturing, be stamped on the package. This amendment passed the House of Commons, but was rejected in the Senate. One of the reasons for the failure of the Bill, and probably the chief reason, was that the manufacturers objected to the clause stating that the date of manufacture be on the package. Most goods are not impaired by keeping, and thus, if the date were stamped, consumers would buy the freshest goods, leaving the manufacturers with perfectly wholesome goods on their hands, which would have to be sold at a discount. This year the Bill is to be introduced again, without the clause relating to date, and will probably be passed.

SELFISHNESS IN SOCIETY

One often wonders whether the unnatural life of the modern society and its crushing structure is due to an inherent increasing selfishness on the part of its individual units, or whether this selfishness is but a result of our social framework itself. Perhaps we may be inclined to accept the latter view; but that selfishness is a general characteristic of the age is quite evident after a superficial study of our conditions.

At the same moment, let us not forget the increasing desire to benefit society which seems to be developing not only in what we may term Christian organizations but in the great, broad mass of society itself. We should never minimize this factor. However small the percentage is of men who are actively engaged in selfless altruistic enterprises, yet, their force, courage and integrity are so great that their influence becomes widespread. As a rule our unselfish men are our leaders, both intellectual and spiritual. They usually represent our most highly intelligent and responsible citizens.

It is well that such leaders exist. Certainly they are by no means always the most popular, but in the end their force of character tells. Widely dispersed though this force of theirs may seem to us to be, nevertheless it is never wasted, never lost.

To calculate mathematically the actual number of men and women occupied in an unselfish capacity would be quite obviously impossible. Suffice it to say that for the most part they seem to come from the leisured and cultured classes. The great mass of people live a more or less hand-to-mouth existence, endeavouring in this era of money-grabbing to snatch for themselves, as well as they may that which is necessary to support life. Is not this fact significant? Does it not show us a condition which fosters selfishness? When man and woman must needs drudge and slave and grasp all day for the needed wage, how can they be anything else but selfish? Competition, rivalry of wits, all this is selfish. Yet it is apparently necessary in order to live and when we must strive with all our power to surpass the other man it is likely that we will spend much time in helping him?

Fortunately for the welfare of our social system, all is not competition. The element of co-operation exists as well. In fact, I feel confident that the ultimate solution of our many troublesome problems will be effected through a growing, intelligent co-operation of man with man. Competition and co-operation will go hand in hand, mutually stimulative. In this way an era of well-being may be ushered in.

But let us consider the present condition. Competition is at its zenith or on its way there. The cry of the age is specialization—a result of the tremendous battle. For men cannot be competitors unless they specialize and their speciality demands their every effort and their every available hour. Most remarkable of all, even our altruism itself, is specialized and we relegate to certain individuals the doing of kindly and generous deeds as well as the care of the spiritual welfare of the community. The successful business man has not the time to clean up the city slums; he is too busy to assume civic or state respon-

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE DEBATE IRISH PROBLEM

Dr. MacNaughton Will Act as Judge in Inter-Class Debate

A full turnout of the Irish sympathizers will take place Tuesday evening, when the Freshman-Sophomore debaters tackle the thorny problem of "Ireland and the Peace Conference." Ever since the beginning of the college season there has been rivalry between First and Second Year Arts, and this rivalry will assume definite shape when the debating teams representing the two years meet under the auspices of the Lit. on Tuesday evening at Strathcona Hall. The wording of the resolution is as follows: "Resolved, That the Irish Question should be included among the problems to be dealt with by the Peace Conference." The Freshmen will be represented by Anderson and Peterson, and the Sophomores by Franklin and Sperber.

The Irish question in any of its aspects usually proves an inspiring subject for debate, and the free discussion after the close of the debate, as well as Professor MacNaughton's summing up, are sure to provide any sidelights on the question that may be overlooked by the speakers.

ARRIVAL OF FIFTH C.M.R. IN MONTREAL

salient. This is borne out by what Sir Max Aitken says in the second volume of "Canada in Flanders." Here it is stated: "The 5th C.M.R. succeeded in maintaining their position in Mopie Copse. Shelled to pieces for hour after hour, and hunted from cover to cover, they yet held on, and this fact was in no small measure due to the great firmness and heroic disregard of death exhibited by Col. Baker. He inspired his men by sheer personal magnetism and by the example of a splendid devotion to duty. Other men did their share in saving the line; still, but for him it might not have been saved at all, and in that case, June 2nd, would have been associated with a great disaster to our arms."

Col. Baker was mortally wounded early in the day and the command passed to Major Draper, who, although hit himself, carried the colonel out of action and then returned to conduct the defence. Repeated German attacks were unsuccessful in trying to dislodge the C.M.R. from Mopie Copse. They were inflexible in their intention to stay as long as it was given them to live.

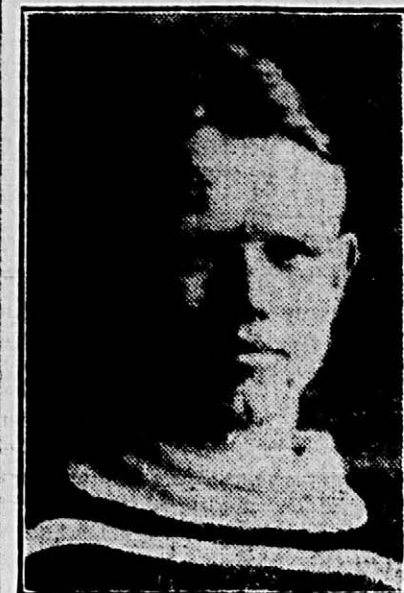

The battle of the Somme in September gave the 5th C.M.R. another opportunity of proving their sterling worth. In the big attack on Courcellette, where the 22nd Battalion won undying fame for the French-Canadian race, the 5th were entrusted with the taking of the ridge at Mouquet farm. This operation was successful, and from the ground gained the 22nd, and other battalions "jumped off" for the further attack which resulted in the capture of Courcellette.

With the exception of a most daring and well carried out daylight raid on December 20th, 1916, in which the 5th C.M.R. co-operated there was little save the monotony of holding the line during the winter of 1916-17.

When the Canadians made such a name for themselves by the capture of Vimy Ridge, the 5th C.M.R. took a leading part in the attack on the La-folle farm sector, continuing their operations until they passed through to Petit Vimy and Vimy village itself. They later assisted in gradually extending our gains until the line was stabilized from Avion to Fresnoy.

FOR PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY CLUB

JOHN GALLERY.

JOHN GALLERY.

John Gallery came to McGill from Loyola College in the fall of 1917, entering the Faculty of Law. While at Loyola, Gallery was President of the Hockey Club, 1915-16, and Captain during 1916-17. Platform—If honoured with the Presidency of the Hockey Club, I will conform with the wishes of the students as regards hockey activities. Just now it is difficult to decide what is the best stand to be taken. ## B. W. AND F. MEMBERS PREPARE FOR SMOKER

M. Champagne, 125-pound Champion Wrestler, Gave Exhibition at Practice

Saturday the B. W. and F. held an extra boxing and wrestling practice in preparation for the coming smoker. A large number of men were present for the work-out, as well as many others who were interested in the welfare of the club.

Work began at 3.00 p.m. sharp with the wrestlers working on one-half of the floor and the boxers on the other. Each set of boxers and wrestlers were given three six-minute bouts. M. Champagne, the champion 125-pound wrestler, who will meet Bleau at the smoker in an exhibition bout, was also present, and gave a good demonstration of wrestling for the benefit of the McGill men.

In order that the men who are to take part in Saturday's smoker, may be in perfect shape, three practices will be held this week. The boxers and wrestlers will practice at the same hours, and are requested to come to all the practices listed below:

The first practice for both boxers and wrestlers will be this evening from 7.30 to 8.30 o'clock. In addition: Tuesday, 5.00 to 6.30; Thursday, 5.00 to 6.30.

Geo. Smith will be in charge of all the practices and asks that every man should be on hand to make them as successful as possible.

WESLEYAN STUDENTS' SOCIETY WAS FORMED

All Resident Students Will Become Members—F. D. Facey is President

During recent months events in the student government of the Wesleyan College have led up to an important change. In the past matters pertaining to the life of the students were regulated by an organization known as "The Students' Parliament." Early in the present term it was realized that the parliamentary form of student government did not meet with the approval of the majority of residents in the college, consequently it was abandoned.

A representative committee was appointed to draft a new form of student government that would be generally accepted by the men. In due course this committee presented the constitution of "The Wesleyan Students' Society," the object of which is to care for the social, literary, and athletic life of all the residents in the building. The society aims to enable the resident students who are taking different subjects in higher education to mutually benefit the students of other departments. We feel that the organization will tend to promote activity in a desirable direction and that it deserves the greatest success.

On Wednesday evening, March 12th, the election of officers took place when the following men were elected to office, and to the Executive Council: F. D. Facey, president; T. Curran, vice-president; M. F. Underhill, secretary; L. J. Sicard, treasurer; E. Parnell, R. A. McLeod, M. J. Aarons and E. A. Bell.

"AFTER THE STORM"

Help Him to Help Himself

We owe the returned soldier every effort we can make towards securing steady employment for him.

Do not try to throw the burden entirely on employers. They have a grave responsibility, but only insofar as every man, woman and child gives willing help can Canada ensure a fair day's pay for a good day's work for all her men.

How can YOU help? By investing in War-Savings Stamps.

How will THAT help? Canada must secure foreign purchasers for the products of her forests, farms, and factories. Many nations are anxious to buy our goods, but can only do so if Canada grants credit to them.

Lend your money to Canada, so that Canada may re-lend to those who must buy on credit. The money is being raised by the sale of War-Savings Stamps, so that when you invest in a War-Savings Stamp you provide a day's pay for some returned soldier.

A War-Savings Certificate with 10 W.S.S. affixed will be redeemed by the Dominion of Canada on January 1st, 1924, for $50.00, for at that date the W.S.S. are worth $5.00 each.

War-Savings Stamps cost $4.02 in March; $4.03 in April; $4.04 in May, and they may be purchased at any place displaying the Beaver-Triangle sign.

MANY GRADS. RETURNED WITH ROYAL CANADIAN BATTALION FIELD AMBULANCE EN ROUTE

Lt.-Col. Vipond, D.S.O., Med. '95, is Officer Commanding the 9th Field Ambulance, which is to arrive here to-morrow—Eric McCuaig, Sci. '06, Youngest Brigadier-General in Canadian Forces, now commands First Infantry Brigade, 1st Canadian Division—Late Dr. Pousette was one of McGill's oldest graduates.

Henry E. Plant, of Westmount, whose son, Lieut. Verner Lovelace Plant, Arts '02, was reported wounded and missing on April 5 last at the time of the great German offensive in France, has now been advised by the War Office that there can no longer be any hope held that he is alive. It had been regarded as a possibility that Lieut. Plant was a wounded prisoner of war, but the information received by the War Office is that there is no longer any reasonable ground for this hope. Lieut. Plant was with the Somerset Light Infantry.

A cable despatch announces that Brigadier-General G. Eric McCuaig, C.M.G., D.S.O., Sci. '06, has been transferred from the command of the 4th Infantry Brigade, Second Canadian Division, to that of the 1st Infantry Brigade, 1st Canadian Division. He is actually the youngest brigadier-general in the Canadian forces, although that honor has been claimed for others.

The funeral of Dr. Arthur Court-hope, Med. '60, one of the oldest of McGill graduates, was held on March 10 from his residence in St. Thomas, Ont., where he had been a citizen for 60 years or more. He was, at one time mayor of St. Thomas, and also for many years medical officer of health there.

Major G. C. McDonald, M.C., Arts '04, has been elected honorary treasurer and F. J. Bisailon, K.C., Law '76, and C. A. Harwood, K.C., Law '93, members of the executive committee of the newly-formed Repatriation League of Montreal.

The marriage was solemnized on March 4 at Llanhamlach Church, Brecon, Wales, of Miss Muriel Loftus Gill, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Gray, Brecon, to Captain Brian A. Peck, past student of the Royal Air Force, son of the late James H. Peck and Mrs. Peck, Undermount, Montreal.

The death occurred in Montreal on March 12 of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Dale Harris, Arts '02, Law '05, aged two weeks.

ARRIVAL OF FIFTH
C.M.R. IN MONTREAL

It was at this time that the 60th Battalion, owing to lack of reinforcements, to maintain its strength, was broken up. Two companies were incorporated with the 5th.

Being out at rest when the attack on Hill 70 was launched, the 5th did not come in until after the show, when they consolidated and held what had been won.

In October, 1917, the Canadian corps moved up to the Ypres sector and were given the task of taking Passchendaele, on which attempts by Imperial and Australians had previously been frustrated by the tenacity of the German troops. The 5th C.M.R. were placed on the extreme left of the Canadian corps, and in the attack of October 30th, succeeded in passing to their objective in spite of the hellish shell fire and terribly sodden and shell-torn condition of the ground.

Their losses were heavy. Major, now Lieut.-Col. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., here won his V.C. by saving the situation in protecting an exposed flank, after being severely wounded.

With the exception of a raid which they made in March, 1918, netting prisoners and causing many casualties to the enemy, no serious fighting was done until August, 1918, when the 5th took part in the big attack at Amiens. Here great successes fell to their lot, including the towns of Lequesnel and Beaucourt.

On August 26th the Battalion participated in the attack on Monchy le Preux, which together with Orange Hill and several lines of trenches was captured by them. A total advance of five thousand yards was made.

Then followed a very brief rest before the fighting in front of Cambrai commenced. Here the Battalion did so well, being the first Canadian battalion to force its way into Cambrai that it is reported that the French Government has done it the signal honor of awarding the Croix de Guerre to decorate the battalion colors.

Fighting followed at Valenciennes and then the final triumphant march which was only stopped by the armistice went on.

Honors won by the battalion include two V.C.'s, the other being awarded to Lieut. C. S. Rutherford for his work at Monchy. Eight D.S.O.'s, forty M.C.'s and about thirty D.C.M.'s, and about sixty military medals, the list of the latter two honors being incomplete.

The Battalion is now under the command of Lieut.-Col. W. Rhoades, D.S.O., and bar, M.C., Croix de Guerre, who went over as adjutant. Major Todd, M.C., of Lachute, is second in command. Captain Cocks is adjutant and Captain Beckwith, transport officer.

Brigadier-General D. C. Draper, of Montreal, who was Lieut.-Col. in command of the 5th, after the death of Lieut.-Col. G. H. Baker in June, 1916, until June, 1918, was promoted Brigadier-General, and given command of the Eighth Canadian Infantry Brigade. He has been awarded the C.M.G. and the D.S.O. with bar.

Brigadier-General C. A. Smart, C.M.G., after leaving the C.M.R. brigade, was in command of several large camps in England.

Campus Leaders.

Mary Dorothy Mawdsley was born in Florence, Italy, and received her preliminary education at Estevan High School, arriving at McGill in time to join the year of 1920. The course she is taking is Honours in English and Philosophy. She has held the offices of vice-president of the Delta Sigma Society and assistant editor of the R.V.C. Section of McGill Daily, and is now the editor of that column. As a debater she is famed throughout the R.V.C., and practises at all hours and on all available persons. Her pet aversion is cub reporters.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Daily is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY.

No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

Westmount, March 14th, 1919.

To the Editor of the "McGill Daily."
Dear Sir,—The Memorial which McGill intends to erect to the Alma Mater's dead heroes ought, in my opinion, to have three characters.

It should be a monument not essentially for the convenience of the living but, rather, consecrated to the memory of the fallen.

It should be a monument that would arrest the eye of everyone entering the campus or passing on the street.

It ought to have a finger pointing upwards, and a voice which would ring for ever in the ears of the successive generations.

I would suggest, therefore, that the McGill Memorial should take the shape of a belfry adjoining the proposed Convocation Hall.

The architecture of this tower would be a tribute to the cities of Northern France and Flanders. Its base would be covered with slabs bearing the names of those who went from the campus to the battlefield. Its summit would bear a clock, which would mark the hours of the New Era, and act as a useful timekeeper for professors and students. But its greatest charm would be its chiming, which at every mid-day would ring out one of the popular melodies of the trenches, reminding young and old of the "long, long trail," from which so many of McGill's best students have never returned.

This belfry, besides being a fitting memorial and a fine ornament to the campus, would contain convenient space for the archives of the University.

If the University authorities approve of this plan, I have no doubt that money for its execution will be forthcoming and that every McGill graduate will want to have a share in the enterprise.

street is to be used as an assembling place for all returned men of the 5th and 60th, who are asked to meet there two hours before the arrival of the battalion, which time will be announced later, in order to go to the station to greet their old comrades. The returned men will act as escorts in the parade through the streets. The armory will later be used for a reception to the battalion, and the wives and relatives of the men are cordially invited to make the fullest use of the building while the men are waiting to pass through the discharge depot. Refreshments will be provided through the kindness of the 5th C. M. R. committee of the Westmount Soldiers' Wives' League.

It was thought unwise to reserve any special place on the Champs de Mars for relatives of the men as this did not work out well in the case of the 42nd, many being unable to see the men.
